Ski Area Expansion at Sunday River Ahead of Schedule

Despite the lack of natural snowfall the past two ski seasons, the Sunday River Ski Area and Sunday
River season pass holders and skisers are undaunted as fall begins.

This summer and fall Sunday
River is installing a new 3,000 foot
Hall double chairlift at the South
Ridge Basin to replace the Mixing Bowl T-Bar. Steel towers are being erected this week, followed closely by the addition of drive assemblies and the haul cable. The project is ahead of schedule and the chairlift should be operational by early November.

Another ski area improvement
includes the cutting of the advanced-intermediate trail "Monday Morning" located beside the Cascades T-Bar. The addition of 4,600 feet of new pipe to the snow-making system at South Ridge will increase the area's snowmaking capacity by 20 acres to a total of 70 acres. The regular annual lift maintenance program and trail mowing is also in progress.

REUNION SERVICE AT WEST PARISH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Sunday, Sept. 27, at 10:30 a.m.
the West Parish Congregational Church will hold its annual reunion service. This service honors those who have helped the church
carry on its work over the years and whose dedication have provided continuity to Christian service in the Bethel area.

Another theme of this year's service will be to "re-establish contact" with former members of the church with whom there has been little or no communication over the past two or three decades.

For those interested in church history, some of the earliest records will be on display in the sanctuary. These include the records started in 1796 when the town and parish were first organized and in 1799 when the first settled pastor, Reverend Daniel Gould, was called to the church. During Sunday's service, the scripture lesson will be read from a Bible given to the church by Reverend Gould.

Members and friends are urged to bring a friend and to enjoy the social hour following the worship service. The co-pastors, Reverend Brendon and Jean Bass and the diocese also hope to be able to obtain information on the whereabouts of some of the older members with whom contact has been lost.

BORDER COLLIES STAR IN NEW OPENING EVENTS AT 1981 FRYEBURG FAIR

Following four years of increasingly popular International Sheep Dog Trials at Fryeburg Fair, this year's events will be Open ones, according to H. Wayne Bartlett of Denmark, sheep superintendent at Maine's annual Blue Ribbon Classic.

The trials have been re-scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 4, which is opening day. Bartlett added that the events will be headed up by Maurice MacGregor of Fryeburg, owner of Highland Kennels.

Expecting some two dozen Border Collies from all over New England and southern Canada,
MacGregor said that the top 1980
winners will all return to Fryeburg and that many newcomers will be on hand. In addition to representatives from MacGregor's kennels, dogs owned by Edgar Gould, Shelburne Falls, Mass.;
and Alex McKinven, North Hatley, Quebec, Canada, were among those to be registered early as entrants for the 131st annual edition of Fryeburg Fair.

Originally scheduled for closing day of Fair Week, the crowds

"Don't Yank Crank" Committee Holds 2nd Open Meeting

The second open meeting of the Don't Yank the Crank Committee was held in Bryant Pond Thursday evening, Sept. 17. Twenty members and interested citizens were in attendance.

Following reports of the secretary and treasurer, discussion was held on the recent meeting of the committee with the manager, president and chief engineer of Oxford Tel. & Tel. Co. It was reported that it was apparent from that meeting that the O. T. & T.
Co. was committed to replacing the present system with dial service. When questioned concerning whether wishes of the customers had been considered, company officials stated that neither a survey of subscriber preference nor a cost comparison had been done by the new owners of the Bryant Pond system.

The Don't Yank the Crank Committee is presently conducting a survey of subscribers and after canvassing 82% of the customers reported that results show 72% of those contacted wish to keep the ring-down system; 15% are willing to go dial, 10% desire the dial system and 3% are undecided. The committee has now contacted a lawyer who specializes in telephone cases and he has been retained to do initial fact finding. At his recommendation, a complaint
has been filed with the Public Utilities Commission.

A list of the complaints or concerns of local citizens was read and discussed and several members gave specific examples of why they desired to keep the ring-down system. One member of the committee will be in Washington, D. C., this week and plans to contact the Smithsonian and the National Trust for Historic Preservation to see what these organizations might suggest. New members of the committee elected at this meeting were Becky Keen, Roseanne Verrill and Richard Felt.

Mrs. Jo Sanderson, Cor.

A large family reunion was held Sunday, Sept. 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Rich. A bountiful pot luck dinner was served on the lawn in the fall sunshine. Some 25 people gathered there. Those attending were Edith Damon, Emma Hatch, two daughters, from Norway and one from Conway Center, N. H., Claudia Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Damon and two children, West Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Levesque and four children, Berlin, N. H., Ruby Driscoll and three children, Bonnie Lynn and daughter from Lewiston. Richard Grover came later and had dinner and Fred Fox of Lovell was an afternoon caller. It was a fine day. Let's do it again next year.

The Friendly Senior Citizens went to Oxford Thursday, Sept. 17 to have dinner and attend the Thompson Lake Senior Citizens meeting which was held at the American Legion Hall there. Some 35 guests were present.

Mike Cummings and Clyde Stanton did some target practice at the dump Thursday.

Lillian Herrick is helping with the meals at Waterford Memorial School this fall.

Jo Sanderson was in Bethel Thursday and enjoyed coffee with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lord received three records of Gospel music from their daughter, Mary and family. The words and music were written and recorded by Mary's husband, Sam Rust. The whole family sing and play. Sam is tenor, Mary sings alto, son Brian plays guitar and daughter Samantha plays tambourine. It is beautiful Christian music.

Though years may pass and tears may dry
 Our memories live strong and true
 Of the motherly love and smiling face
 That always came from you.

 Gone home is with you in that Heavenly home on the other side

Every dream comes true,
 We loved you both then and love

Superintendent's Newsletter

Dr. Wayne F. Gersen

The S.A.D. #44 District Math Committee conducted its first meeting last Wednesday, Sept. 16, at the Woodstock Elementary School. The Math Committee has been formed to address one of the Board of Directors goals for the year, the improvement of student achievement in mathematics.

The weakness in the area of mathematics was brought to the Board's attention through the California Test of Basic Skills, which has been administered to students in the district for the past three years. As outlined in the Superintendent's Newsletter last July, mathematics was identified as an area of relative weakness in the district at virtually every grade level. Furthermore, on the district's own mastery test, students in grades 3 through 7 failed to achieve mastery at the levels expected by the teachers and administration. With this awareness of a problem, the Directors identified the improvement of mathematics achievement as a goal for the 1981-82 school year.

In order to address this goal, a district mathematics committee of teachers and administrators has been established. In the coming year, the mathematics committee will review the appropriateness of the specific grade level skills to be mastered, consider the addition of metric measurement and problem solving skills to the list of skills to be mastered, assess the need for teacher in-service, and develop and field test a standardized mastery test that will satisfy the requirements of the district's Academic Standards Skills Committee.

At their first meeting, committee members offered explanations for the difficulties that are evident at the intermediate grade levels. Within the next four to six weeks, the committee will survey all classrooms and mathematics teachers in the elementary and middle schools to determine if skills are being introduced at the appropriate grade level and if the expectations at each grade level are realistic.

In addition to analyzing the existing computation skills that are expected of students, the mathematics committee plans to integrate metrics, problem solving, and calculator and computer technology into the mathematics curriculum. Metric measure will be emphasized because, in all probability, metrics will be in standard use by the time most of our elementary students graduate from school. Word problems that require abstract thinking skills have been cited as a singular weakness in our district in the standardized testing program and will, therefore, be a priority in improving our curriculum. Finally, the effective use of hand calculators and computers will be an area of emphasis since most students in the district have access to a hand calculator and low-cost home computers will, evidently, be a standard appliance in the homes of the future. The district Math Committee

Olive Davis, Corres.

The Willing Workers will meet Sept. 28 with Esther Davis. It is hoped that all can come to plan future dates, and Hunters' Supper isn't far off now.

Vera Buck has had her pony taken care of.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brooks, Olive Davis and Richard Felt attended Past Officers Night at Oxford Friday night. Last Saturday night some of us were at Bear River meeting.

This is the harvest time. Every one who has gardens are busy trying to can or freeze their produce. I raised some beautiful big boy tomatoes. I've finally found a way to make them more tasty to me, as I really do not care for ripe tomatoes. I have made a tomato cocktail which I really like. I've been using all my ripe tomatoes by making this drink, as the tomatoes ripen. It makes a good drink before meals. The leaves are turning rapidly on the meadows and are a pretty sight. In another week or so the fall plumage will be at its height. People have been attending Norway fair the past week.

Richard Felt attended several Senior Citizens' meetings this week and furnished harmonica music along with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Riley which was enjoyed by all.

Esther Davis was in Livermore Thursday and took dinner with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Don Brown. She called on her sister, Marion Whittemore, and found them gone so went to South Livermore and took supper with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pike. Friday, Esther spent the day with a classmate, Ingrid Waite at Canton and called on neighbors of long ago, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bryant.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tucci called on Olive Davis Sunday evening. Olive Davis went to Retired Teachers at Fryeburg Saturday with Lettie Brooks, Colista Morgan, Doris Hayes and Ruth Hastings.

Finally the rain caught up with us on Saturday. It had been forecast all week.

tee must take these technological advances into account as it assesses the effectiveness of the mathematics curriculum.

The identification of mathematics as a problem area, and the attacking of the problem by a committee of S.A.D. #44 teachers and administrators is a textbook example of the effective operation of a school board. The Board, using data provided by the administration, has identified an area of curricular weakness, and delegated the solution of the problem to the professionals in the district who can best develop a working solution. By the conclusion of the school year, the Mathematics Committee will have developed a comprehensive, appropriate sequence of math skills that will ensure that each student in the district is receiving more effective instruction in an area of primary importance, mathematics.

MOLLOCKETT MIXERS
 The Mollockett Mixers will hold their first dance of the season on Saturday, Sept. 26, at 8 p. m. at Rufford High School. The caller will be Al Burke with rounds cued by Wally Weeks.

Safety Tip of the Week

-Electrical Hazards

Don't overload extension cords as this is dangerous and could lead to an electrical fire. Make sure you use a large enough cord to serve the purpose safely. Extension cords under rugs become frayed and are also dangerous. When electrical cords become unserviceable replace them before they cause a fire not after you lose

NOTES FROM Evans Notch

White Mountain National Forest

The busy summer season on the Evans Notch Ranger District is winding down with the coming of the fall season. Campground usage was up 3% overall. Basin Campground is now closed. Hastings, Wild River, and Cold River will remain open, and a fee will be charged through Columbus Day. All campgrounds except Basin will remain open after this date, but without water and trash pickup. A carry-in and carry-out policy will prevail at this time.

Many campers prefer to camp now as the campgrounds are not crowded. Fall colors will bring in many sightseers. Colors may not be as brilliant in some areas because of the infestation of the Gypsy Moth and Saddle Prominent. Visitors are asked to be aware of the many logging trucks still rolling on the District. Cars should be parked well off the road on Route 113 for viewing the beautiful fall colors. The Deer Hill Road remains closed to all entry.

The YACC Program, which started in October, 1977, will end on September 30, 1981. This program employed as many as 25 at one time and as few as four at the present time. Employment was available to young adults from age 16 through 23. The program yielded about $140,000 worth of completed projects each year with a return of about $1.25 for each $1.00 invested. A large amount of boundary and trail work has been completed since devastating winds damaged in excess of 5,000 acres on Dec. 3 and 4, 1980.

The timber program shows no sign of slowing down. Fifty-four timber sales were sold in Fiscal year 1981, with 47 of these being Blowdown Salvage Sales. The stumpage values of the 24 million board feet sold in Salvage Sales was in excess of $63,000.

For Fiscal Year 1982 the estimated salvage will be an additional 17 to 20 million feet with about 10 million sold during the first half of the year. Several sales will be advertised for sale in October. Anyone wishing to bid on these should contact the District office and have his name placed on the bidder's list.

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

As I look from my window, the pond is red. At first sight I wondered why. But just beyond, the leaves have turned and reflect their color in the water even though there are slaty-blue clouds piled up in the west and a bit of a wind is harping among the maple leaves. The colors have come earlier here this year. In all directions there are the hills showing patches on their slopes.

To my right I see gorgeous deep purple asters. Well I remember, how they came to be. They took a long journey from North Haven Island by the sea. The morning was rainy and cool. My brother-in-law and I dressed in rain slickers and boots, walked through tall grass with shovel and basket and dug them from the sod. It was our last day on the Island that fall.
They have grown and blossomed
every autumn since; a memory
to him who is now gone.

I hope someone will tell another
in time to come, anear, afar:
"These plants were surely worth their bother."

How lovely wild fall asters are.
As I climbed the mountain this week, sunshine was pinking the smoke that floated lazily up against a grove of spruces in the far distance.

My destination was a visit to a talkative stream. I looked out over the valley, hummocky, softly green, stretching to the sky. Here and there a small feathery birch,
a stunted spruce, tussocks of moss
under foot, and of course the goldenrods and asters. Nearly always a little breeze was whispering
among the trees.

This brook runs in the forest,
twists and turns, and seldom knows rest. There are pot holes of sizes from tea cups to tub size.
Green mosses drump from its overflowing banks, when water is high.

"I have listened to your whisper,
And I never yet could listen
What it is you always whispering."
As you creep among the ferns."

I tend to love "natural" Nature
best, wild forests, big mountains, unpopulated stretches of coast lines. I prefer the untended, the fresh, the non-manhandled. Nature is rich, surprising, varied, but full of beauty, cruelty and truth.

Sunshine splashed the openings
and streaked the smooth gray trunks of the beeches. The moss among the twisted roots became spot-lighted and the water sparkled and rippled. The air was warm and laden with the smell of forest mold. All along the fallen tree trunk on which I sat the bark was warm from the sun's rays.

The intense stillness, the solitariness of the scene impressed the moment on my mind.
Turning toward home the fields came alive with shifting light and movement. Bright green ran up and down the hills, swept by successive waves of shimmering light.

Down the Spring Road I noted the distant colors surrounding our valley, which is just a dimple on the face of the earth. It's small but lovely.

Leonas and Fay Holt enjoyed their family on Sunday for they were all home. Robert and Jarl

MIDDLE INTERVALE
MEETING HOUSE SOCIETY
MET SATURDAY, SEPT. 12
On Saturday, Sept. 12, members of the Middle Intervale Meeting House Society met at the Meeting House. Twenty-two were present to view the progress made thus far on the interior work. Old paper and plaster have been removed.
necessary lathe repair made, and new plaster which will be painted later this fall.

President Stanley Howe called for reports, and after a discussion of old business the group heard the request of the Christ Church Episcopal, Norway, to hold their annual fall service in the Meeting House on Sept. 27. It was unanimously voted to grant this request. For several seasons prior to the formation of the Meeting House Society this group had held their service in Middle Intervale.

Many years ago the first Carter came to Paris Hill and built a store, and later brother Dr. Timothy came from Sutton, Mass., to build his home across from the Meeting House. The Paris Hill
Carter were and still are Episcopals and the Timothy Carters who now own and reside in the Brick End home of their ancestor Dr. Timothy are members of Christ Church Episcopal, which held their members to hold the fall meeting here in Middle Intervale.
It will be recalled that after the formation of the Meeting House Society, the Carter heirs, descended from Dr. Timothy, gave the Society the land and building thereon.

It was reported that over 30
new members, including some life
members have joined the Society since June. Also the project of repairing one of the two church organs has gone forward with the hope that one will be successfully repaired for use. Board members Mary Veronis of Norway and Christ Church Episcopal has been working on this project.

Chairman Beatrice Buck of the Membership Committee plans to start a membership drive soon.

The Restoration Committee will be discussing paint colors for interior and a meeting of the membership will be called before painting is started to provide an opportunity to express their wishes.
President Howe will call this meeting before the end of October.

ALL-SPORTS EQUIPMENT RUMMAGE SALE, OCT. 10, AT SUNDAY RIVER BASE LODGE

On Oct. 10, weather notwithstanding, the Sunday River Ski Club will sponsor an all-sports equipment rummage sale at the Sunday River Ski Area base lodge. All proceeds from the event, which will begin at noon and run until 5:00, will benefit the various programs of the Sunday River Ski Club, focusing primarily on its young skier development programs. The sale will be one element of a busy day at Sunday River, other events to include season pass holders' photograph sessions and a social hour and business meeting for the entire ski club.

When making donations, the public should remember that nothing in the attic or garage can be immediately dismissed as junk. Somebody might need that mongrel 3-wheel to complete his golf set, or he might have a mate to your orphaned ski pole. The Club will accept virtually any donation it deems saleable and will dispose of anything not sold. It sounds like you can't lose by donating, and it's true; you can clean the garage and help a youngster to ski as well.

Donations can be made by calling Rocky Swain in Bethel at 824-2088 before Friday, Oct. 8. If there's a possibility that your item will sell, a club representative will pick it up if necessary. Or, better still, you can drop your things off at Joan Putnam's house, lower Main Street, Bethel, by Oct. 8. And don't just donate—Come! Someone may have donated the canoe paddle that you've been looking for.

TELSTAR CROSS COUNTRY

The Telstar cross country dropped to 0-3 after a home meet with Mexico and Mt. Abram on Sept. 16. The scores were Mexico 29, Telstar 85, and Mt. Abram 61. The Savage brothers turned in an excellent race. Good support was also given by Marty Reed, Rick Coulombe and Jon Owen.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

What is Cross-Country? (II)
Last week I addressed some of the philosophical answers to this question. Let's get practical this week.

Cross-country is run by a team of seven members. Five of these people are scorers and two are called displacements. Why then the emphasis on a large team or depth? More on that later. Let's see how these seven people score against another team in a race. I'll call them team A and team B. Let's say that team A places its people in order of finish 1, 3, 4, 9, 12, 13, 14 while team B places people at 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11. We then add up the first five positions for each team. Team A scores 29; Team B scores 28. Team B wins. That's right, the lowest score wins. Now, what about these displacement people? Team B's people were 10th to 14th, thus pushing A's last scorer to 12th and insuring B's victory.

More on the question of depth next week.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH HAVING WORKSHOP, SEPT. 30

The Bethel United Methodist Church is sponsoring a half-day workshop, You, Your Church, and Your Community, on Wednesday, Sept. 30.

This workshop is designed to help individual participants focus on the religious/spiritual aspects of his or her life; the role the church plays in meeting these needs; the role of the individual in the church; also, to take a closer look at the role of the church within the community.

Following the initial small group discussions, attention will be directed toward goal setting: "What our church is like now"; "What we'd like it to be"; and finally, "What will make it happen?"

Afternoon activities will be held in the church annex from 2:30-5:30 p. m. and will be followed by a pot-luck supper at 6:00 p. m. with a wrap-up session to end by 8:00 p. m.

The public is invited to attend, and interested persons who cannot participate in the afternoon are urged to share in the "pot-luck fellowship" and brief, but important Action Plan session.

CROSS COUNTRY QUILTERS MEETING TONIGHT AT BETHEL LIBRARY

The Cross Country Quilters, the Bethel Chapter of the Pine Tree Quilters Guild, will begin weekly "quilting bees" starting tonight (Thursday) upstairs at the Bethel Library from 7 to 9 p. m. These meetings will be held every Thursday, except for the first Thursday of each month. Anyone interested in quilting is welcome. Please bring a project to work on during the session. Also bring finished work for an informal "show and tell". The annual membership dues for the Pine Tree Quilters are payable to the Guild through Dorla Fudge, treasurer, or through Carol Gersen, president. Anyone wishing further information is urged to call Carol or Dorla.

POLICE OFFICERS BEING MADE AWARE OF NEW DRUNK DRIVING LAW PROCEDURES

All Maine police officers are being made aware of procedures necessary to enforce the State's new drunk driving law.

"As part of Governor Brennan's crack-down on drunk drivers, the Maine Criminal Justice Academy has published, with assistance from Cumberland County Deputy District Attorney Peter Ballou, a booklet to be used by police relating to Operating Under the Influence and Habitual Offender Provisions of the new Drunk Driving Law," said Commissioner Arthur A. Stiphen of the Maine Department of Public Safety.

Stiphen said the 11-page booklet, "The New OUI and Habitual Offender Provisions" was authored by Cumberland County Deputy District Attorney Peter Ballou, who also assisted the Governor's Office in writing the original legislation.

The Public Safety Commissioner said, "The Criminal Justice System, including law enforcement, will do its utmost to make sure individuals who don't voluntarily comply with the law will be vigorously prosecuted to maintain a safer driving environment."

A higher percentage of handicapped children are taught in American public schools than in schools of any other nation in the world. More than 4 million are enrolled this year in the U. S. More than 24,000 in Maine.

TELSTAR TIPS MT. ABRAM 2-1 IN SOCCER PLAY

The Telstar soccer team capture its biggest victory in three years Wednesday, Sept. 16, by defeating a talented Mt. Abram team 2-1 before a large hometown crowd.

Mt. Abram began the scoring at 4:50 of the first quarter as Todd Calkin drove a grounder into the corner of the net past freshman goalkeeper Brandon Salway. But at 15:31 of the same period Rocky Myers received a pass from freshman wing Luis Moran and left-footed it past Mt. Abram's all-star goalie Neal Tranten.

The score remained tied 1-1 at the half as Telstar began to show some momentum going in their direction. Then at 13:10 of the third quarter Chris Mills converted another Luis Moran pass for the game winning goal.

The loss was only Mt. Abram's second in the past 18 games. The win left Telstar with an overall record of 4-1.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE AT NORWAY, SUNDAY, SEPT. 27

Betty Ann Ridley

The public is invited to a free lecture titled "Discover Your Relationship to God", sponsored by the Christian Science Society of Norway, on Sunday evening, Sept. 27, at 7:30 p. m. in the American Legion Hall, Main Street, Norway.

Guest lecturer, Betty Ann Ridley, a Christian Scientist from Oklahoma City, illustrates how to gain a spiritual view of ourselves by understanding our relationship to God as shown in the Bible. Her own healing—through prayer—of the after-effects of polio some years ago is an example of the practical effects of such understanding.

Referring to Christ Jesus' parable of the search for the "one pearl of great price", Mrs. Ridley notes that many people today are searching "for a better view of themselves".

Mrs. Ridley is a graduate of Scripps College in Claremont, Calif. While her three children were growing up, she was involved in educational television programming for children. In 1973 she began to devote her full time to the Christian healing practice of Christian Science, and she was recently appointed to the Christian Science Board of Lecturership.

NORDIC SKI CLUB

PLANS TAG SALE

The Nordic Ski and Outing Club met Sunday, Sept. 20, to formulate plans for the fall and winter seasons.

Farmington on their list of activities is the first of an annual tag sale of all winter sports clothing and equipment—nordic and alpine equipment, snowmobile clothing and helmets, skates, etc. Tom Remington of Bethel was elected chairman for this project. The sale will be held at the Telstar Regional High School Gymnasium on Nov. 7. Anyone wishing the Club to sell their equipment at this sale on a consignment basis will be requested to bring their items to the Gym on Friday, Nov. 6, between the hours of 3 and 8 p.m. for tagging. The Club pledged to make an all out effort for the sale, recruiting merchandise from area shops as well as residents.

In other plans the Club decided to reopen and maintain some of the cross country ski trails at Telstar, to benefit the area ski teams as well as the general public. A combination work party/outing/picnic is planned for Oct. 10, at 10 a.m. Anyone with an interest in helping that day to reopen trails

AREA HEALTH CENTER SPONSORING TWO FLU VACCINE CLINICS

The Bethel Area Health Center will be sponsoring two flu clinics for the community. The first one will be held at the Bethel United Methodist Church on Monday, Sept. 28, from 12:30 to 2:30 p. m. It is being held at the Senior Citizen meal site as a convenience to those who regularly attend the meals. However, anyone interested should feel free to come.

For those who find daytime hours inconvenient, another clinic will be held at the Center on Wednesday, Oct. 7, from 5 to 7 p. m.

Because the vaccine is not being given by the State to the Center, there will be a charge this year. Medicare also does not cover this fee. To avoid the expense of billing, everyone is asked to pay for the vaccine at the time of the clinic.

Due to the hazards associated with the flu vaccination, the Center will follow the guidelines issued by the Center for Disease Control. These are: only those people 65 or over or anyone with a chronic illness should receive the vaccine; no one allergic to eggs should receive the vaccine. Chronic illness includes: hypertension, diabetes, heart, lung, liver or blood problems. Everyone who is 65 or over or has been told he/she has one of these problems is urged to take advantage of the clinic. At times other than the clinics, an office visit will have to be charged. If there are any questions, please call the Center at 824-2193.

WEST BETHEL Children's Center

The Center has opened its doors to a new program year with Head Start and Day Care children. The children have been busy getting to know the Center routine, staff, and each other. Activities geared directly to the three to five year old children are being offered in all learning-play areas this week. The Center's staff strives to encourage optimum growth in each individual child's social, intellectual, emotional, and physical development. The Center is licensed by the state to serve 32 area children. The green School House on the Flat Road in West Bethel is the perfect setting for the warm home-like environment the staff has created to guarantee that children enjoy their first experience at school. Oxford County Community Services in South Paris is the administering agency of the programs. Children Services branch of O.C.C.S. sponsors three Head Start programs, with the other two in Norway and Mexico areas. The West Bethel Center houses the only government funded Day Care program in Oxford County.

Staff at the Center are dedicated professionals who look forward to providing an excellent program this year and actively encourage parent involvement and community participation. Donna Richard-Chapman is Head Teacher at the Center responsible for the Center's operation. Bette Woodbury is working part-time with teaching staff and is the Education/Handicapped Coordinator for Children's Services. Martha Stowell-McLean, Colleen Pinette, Katina Colombotes, and Pat Sweetser work together as pre-school teachers in "team-teaching" approach. Lorraine Redman Hall is the Family Services Coordinator at the Center and Tyrene Lovejoy is the Center cook.

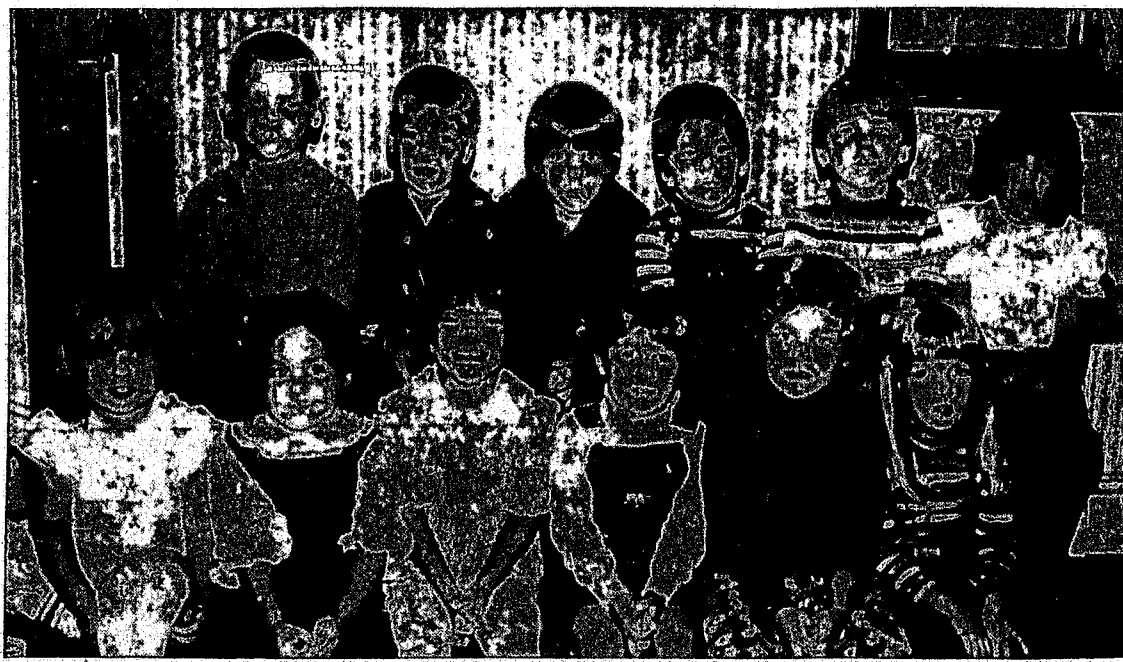

Children enrolled at the Center are: Eric Adams, Jacob Annis, Seneca Brooke, Quentin Buker, Shelly Burris, Jennie Edwards, Margie Farrar, Lisa Heines, Shane Heath, Mathew Leonard, Rosalie Leonard, Angie Lovejoy, Joey McLain, Amy Lynn Patten, Dan and Jeremy Patten, Aaron Paul, Samantha Poland, Patsy Roberts, Jessica Savage, Andrew and Jason Saunders, Jeremy Smith, Paul Sweetser, Scott Tripp, Michael Walker, Wednesday Westleigh, Brian Worcester and Travis York.

A special "thank you" goes to Dr. Gersen and Sonny Blake for their support and transportation of the Head Start children. Thank you too to volunteers Jennie Edwards and Elsie Bonney.

NEWS FROM ADULT AND COMMUNITY EDUCATION

The Fall term of S. A. D. #44 Adult and Community Education program began during the week of Sept. 21, with many courses filled to maximum levels. It is still possible to enroll in many of the courses offered, and information is available at the Adult and Community Education office, 824-2135, at Telstar High School.

The Preservice Meeting for teachers and members of the Adult and Community Education Advisory Council was held at Telstar on Wednesday, Sept. 16, beginning with a pot-luck supper in the cafeteria. Following the supper the kick-off for the Fall term began with a talk given by Robert Curran of the Division of Adult and Community Education of the Department of Education and Cultural Services in Augusta. Curran, a specialist in the concept of community education, outlined the philosophy of community education which is based on the use of community resources in the schools and the schools as a resource in the community. While this seems a sensible and simple idea, the translation of theory into practice is often more difficult and Curran gave examples of communities where many aspects of community education are used. The remainder of the evening was spent in small group sessions, led by veteran teachers Julie Daye, Rachel MacKay and Tim Kersey, for teachers in the Adult and Community Education program.

Adult and Community Education Director Cathy Newell was in Bangor on Sept. 17 for a meeting of the directors of the six sites making up the External Credit Option program in Maine. Materials for publicity were distributed and plans for curriculum development were shared. As part of the statewide pilot, the S. A. D. #44 program will develop learning packets in specialized areas of math, science, including health, history and English. Once developed the packets will be used by adults who wish to earn high school credit outside the classroom. Several adults are presently enrolled in the E.C.O. program, with more welcome.

Upcoming events in S. A. D. #44's Adult and Community Education program include the Oct. 8 workshop in Energy Saving Window Treatments, offered by Central Maine Power, at Telstar. Please call to sign up, 824-2135.

NEWS FROM ADULT AND COMMUNITY EDUCATION

The Fall term of S. A. D. #44 Adult and Community Education program began during the week of Sept. 21, with many courses filled to maximum levels. It is still possible to enroll in many of the courses offered, and information is available at the Adult and Community Education office, 824-2135, at Telstar High School.

The Preservice Meeting for teachers and members of the Adult and Community Education Advisory Council was held at Telstar on Wednesday, Sept. 16, beginning with a pot-luck supper in the cafeteria. Following the supper the kick-off for the Fall term began with a talk given by Robert Curran of the Division of Adult and Community Education of the Department of Education and Cultural Services in Augusta. Curran, a specialist in the concept of community education, outlined the philosophy of community education which is based on the use of community resources in the schools and the schools as a resource in the community. While this seems a sensible and simple idea, the translation of theory into practice is often more difficult and Curran gave examples of communities where many aspects of community education are used. The remainder of the evening was spent in small group sessions, led by veteran teachers Julie Daye, Rachel MacKay and Tim Kersey, for teachers in the Adult and Community Education program.

Adult and Community Education Director Cathy Newell was in Bangor on Sept. 17 for a meeting of the directors of the six sites making up the External Credit Option program in Maine. Materials for publicity were distributed and plans for curriculum development were shared. As part of the statewide pilot, the S. A. D. #44 program will develop learning packets in specialized areas of math, science, including health, history and English. Once developed the packets will be used by adults who wish to earn high school credit outside the classroom. Several adults are presently enrolled in the E.C.O. program, with more welcome.

Upcoming events in S. A. D. #44's Adult and Community Education program include the Oct. 8 workshop in Energy Saving Window Treatments, offered by Central Maine Power, at Telstar. Please call to sign up, 824-2135.

BERLIN BETTERS TELSTAR 2-0 IN FRIDAY SOCCER ACTION

The Telstar soccer team suffered its first shut-out of the season Friday, Sept. 18, as a good-passing Berlin team outlasted the Rebels for a 2-0 victory.

The game remained scoreless through the first three periods as both teams raced up and down the field making shots at goal. Finally at 12:00 of the final quarter Roger Francoeur broke the ice as he converted a pass from Al Martin. Two minutes later, Martin scored an unassisted goal to complete the scoring.

The Rebels showed a bright future though, as seven freshmen, three sophomores, and five juniors saw plenty of action.

YOUTH SOCCER RESULTS

The Bethel Area Youth Soccer League completed its second round of games Sunday, Sept. 20. The Bombers outscored the Strikers by a score of 3-1. Monika Burk scored two goals, one from a penalty shot and Darren Peltz netted one leading the scoring for the Bombers. Daphne Bills scored the lone goal for the Strikers as she converted a perfect pass from Marybeth Hannon.

In the second game the Sockers again prevailed over the Rowdies by a score of 3-1. Perry Hart scored all three goals for the Sockers. Brant Remington and Mike Thompson each assisted on one goal and Perry scored the third on a breakaway to complete the "hat trick". Jay Davis tallied the Rowdies' goal on an assist from Bobby Mitchell. Jeff Lyon was cited for great defensive play for the Sockers, as was Denise Gauthier for the Rowdies.

The next games will be played Sunday, Sept. 27. It is hoped that those players who have been unable to attend will be able to make it this Sunday.

GOULD ACADEMY
BEGINS 145th YEAR

Classes began on Monday, Sept. 14 at Gould Academy, which has opened its doors each fall since 1836. Of the 202 students starting the 1981-82 school year, 187 will be boarding in one of Gould's six dormitories and 15 will be attending the school as day students. As a group, the student body represents a wide diversity of backgrounds and experience with students coming from 18 states, the District of Columbia and 12 foreign countries. As has been the case consistently over the past, one third of the students come from Maine with almost another third representing the rest of New England. The other states represented range from Florida to Alaska and the foreign countries include Canada, Thailand, Germany, and the Philippines. Fourteen students are sons and daughters of former Gould graduates, keeping alive a tradition and continuity going back many generations.

According to Admissions Director Edward Hitchcock, the summer was an extraordinary admissions season, with many excellent students enrolling during the months of June, July and August. The Academy opened two small dormitories, located in faculty houses on campus, to accommodate a number of these qualified candidates. Included in the group of 109 new students are a number of National Honor Society members and some All American Lacrosse players. Mr. Hitchcock states that, "we've filled the school for this year and are now beginning to interview candidates for the 1982-83 school year."

The formal school program actually began on Sept. 9 with faculty meetings on the 10th, many students returned to participate in pre-season training camps for soccer and field hockey and to go on hiking, canoe and camping trips designed to allow new students time to get acquainted with each other, and to enjoy the picturesque mountain scenery and lakes that abound in the Bethel area.

These camps ended on Sept. 13, the day that the remainder of the student body returned. At an all-school assembly that evening, Headmaster Donald W. Fudge welcomed all to Gould and remarked about his expectations and enthusiasm for the new school year.

BETHEL HISTORY ORDERS
TOP 250 COPIES

The pre-publication orders for the reprint of William E. Lapham's "History of Bethel 1768-1890" has now passed the 250 copy mark, better than half the proposed 500 copies now being reserved. The latest word is that the book will be available about Nov. 1. In order to take advantage of the substantial pre-publication savings, the Bethel Historical Society must have the order and full payment before that date.

The history will include all of the 1891 edition except new indexes have been prepared which will replace the old one which was woefully inadequate. The name index prepared by the Society lists the nearly 7,000 names appearing in the book and a new subject index has been included to assist with finding information. In addition a new interpretive essay by Society Director Stanley Howe has been added discussing Lapham and highlighting the history of Bethel since 1891. The book will have an attractive dust jacket featuring the 1878 bird's eye view of Bethel.

All inquiries should be directed to the Bethel Historical Society, P. O. Box 12, Bethel, Maine 04217 or call 824-2908.

BENEFIT SOFTBALL GAME
RAISES OVER $1,000

FOR RODNEY WESTLEIGH

The women's softball teams of West Paris, Bryant Pond, and West Sumner raised $1,200 for Rodney Westleigh on Sunday, Aug. 23. Rodney lost his leg in a farm accident in June. Local businesses donated food and beverages. Friends and neighbors donated baked goods and served refreshments. More than 50 people turned out to watch the two games. The first game West Paris played Bryant Pond. The second game, the Bryant Pond winners of the first game challenged and defeated West Sumner. The team members were very pleased that so many people gave so generously to help Rodney Westleigh and want to thank everyone who helped out in any way.

Rodney is doing great this year at the Woodstock Elementary School in Bryant Pond in the sixth grade. He continues therapy at Stephens Memorial Hospital. Later he will be fitted with an artificial leg.

parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mills. The Smiths had just returned from a trip to Bangor and Bar Harbor. While away they spent one night with Rev. and Mrs. Hoy Richards and family in Ellsworth.

Mrs. Ruby Coolidge is convalescing at her home following gall bladder surgery at Stephens Memorial Hospital.

The farewell open house for Rev. and Mrs. Wuori was well attended Sunday afternoon. They were presented with a beautiful painting of the church, done by Joyce Hathaway.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Greenwood Fire Department met Tuesday evening with five members present. Fire Prevention Week was discussed, as was the Christmas craft fair and the possibility of holding a pot luck supper for the firemen following their next monthly training session on Mt. Abram.

PETITION TO PUC OBJECTS TO BETHEL HEARING

The following petition has been addressed to the secretary of the Maine Public Utilities Commission under the date of Sept. 22, 1981. It has been submitted by Richard Sweetser and 13 other citizens of Bethel.

The text of the petition follows: "I earnestly object to the Bethel Water District hearing to be held on September 23, 1981 at 11:00 a. m. at the Community Room, Bethel Savings Bank, Main Street, Bethel, Maine.

"We, the townspeople of Bethel, have never been told the results of the investigation, which we petitioned for. Surely, we should have been given the results of this investigation, before a Public Hearing is held to propose an increase in rates.

"Another objection to the meeting is the time it is being held. The bulk of the consumers will be working and unable to attend. Also, it was in such small print, it could have been written in invisible ink, as far as the elderly citizens are concerned.

"I, also, object to the deliberate placement of this and other notices of importance. It appears that the town officials hope they will be overlooked by the general populace.

"I am petitioning to intervene by this letter."

1981 FRYEBURG FAIR

grandstand, with the finals of the top ten qualifiers at 2:00 p. m. the same day, Preston Davenport of Tollgate Farms, Litchfield, Conn., who ran an entry in the first United States Sheep Dog Trial, will be judge.

Also for the first time this season, the Oct. 4 Dog Trials at Fryeburg Fair will be held on the race track in front of the grandstand, "far more convenient both for performing and for our spectators," MacGregor pointed out. In the trials, the talented little dogs "boss" sheep through gates and over bridges in an amazing display of canine intelligence.

It's one of the finest examples of man and beast working quietly together to achieve a job," MacGregor added. He will be assisted at the Fair by his wife, Margaret and by neighbor Roger Deschambault, veteran of Fryeburg Fair tractor pull activities and himself a collie owner who will be showing at the trials.

The course will be set up to simulate a working farm situation, the dog's owners standing in place while the dog moves the stock from one area to another. Each animal, under his master's direction, will display his intelligence in holding the sheep at a given place, as well as in separating individuals from the herd.

"It's a test of a dog's obedience," MacGregor said, "and a particularly fascinating one for an audience to watch."

Fair officials are delighted to add the Sheep Dog Trials as an Opening Day feature. Other Sunday highlights include the annual horse show, the fireman's muster, a Society pig scramble, pony pull, horse pulling (2,800-pound class) and an evening of pulling competition in the 3,600-pound class.

A program of all events for the entire eight day meeting of the Fryeburg Fair is available from the Secretary, Fryeburg 04097.
